

How to report an incident to us

999

is the emergency contact number and is available 24 hours a day, seven days a week.

Call 999 from a mobile

If you can't speak or answer questions, and we suspect that you may be in danger, we can make further enquiries to recontact and/or trace you.

Call 999 from a landline

If you can't speak or answer questions, and we suspect that you may be in danger, we can make further enquiries to recontact and/or trace you.

For British Sign Language (BSL) users, please use our video relay service where an interpreter will help you report the crime to us.

LIVE CHAT

Our live chat service is available from 7am to 10pm, seven days a week. You can use this service to report crime and get advice and information.

REPORT ONLINE

If you would like to report a non-emergency incident you can get general advice, report matters online and also find details regarding your neighbourhood policing team all via our website.

101

is the non-emergency contact number and is available 24 hours a day, seven days a week.

You can report a range of non-emergency issues such as:

Your car has been stolen

Your property has been damaged

You suspect drug use or dealing

You want to report a minor traffic accident

If you have a hearing or speech impairment, use our textphone service on 18001 101.

NOTTINGHAMSHIRE
POLICE
PROUD TO SERVE